I hev returned from St. Loois, and mity glad I am to glt back to the scene of my fucher laber for the next four; months. St. Loois is a hot city, but ext the likker is allux good there, and ex the Tilden delegates, ex well ex the anti-Tilden ones, hed lots uv money, I made out oget on. Ex they never argood with a delegate without askin him to take suthin, I did't make up my mind till'the very last.

very last.

It was the most interestin convenshun I ever attended, and I have bin to em all, sence the one that nominated Martin Van Booren. This was the most interestin, becox it was thoroly devoid to rajorm, which allaz is my best holt: Eff can't be a reformin suthin I am abslootly miz-which allux is my best not. Far care a reformin suthin I am abslootly mize a reform suthin I am abslootly mize a reform suthin I am abslootly mize rable.

It gave me noo hopes uv the Republic stosee the sperit uv reform that filled the soles uv all the Dimocrisy present,—that is, neerly all uv em. Occasionally an anxious-lookin farmer delegate wood remark, "Wat shel we do with the emerce?" and then John Morrisey wood immelity shut him up with the remark, "D—n the currency—wat we want is reform in the Government."

And when a Noo England biznis man wood ask, "Wat shel we do with the currency?" Boss Kelly wood d—n him for introdoosli disturbin elemence into the Convenshun. "Wat we want is reform," the Boss wood continyoo; and, of the man didn't sing small, some of the Bosses' reformers wood go thro him. A great man is Boss Kelly. I don't wonder that the Noo York Dimocrisy love him.

John Morrisey is the most ardent reformer I know uv. He was on entirely devotid; to it that I saw him stop a game uv faro, at a bank wich he run door in the convenshun, to argoe with an Injeany delegate, who wux a loain bootfully, that of the Dimocrisy didn't git control uv the Noo York Custom-House and Postoffis, the country wux rooined shoor. In the con uv reform he wux willing todevote all the profits uv his banks at Saratoga and Washington.

Boss Kelly wux even more urgent for the started and the profits uv his banks at Saratoga and Washington.

the profits uv his banks at Saratoga and Washington, Boss Kelly wuz even more urgent for reform than Morrisey. He said that unit! Tammany got possession uv the Government, he cood see nothin but ruin ahed. Give him a platform wich pronounced squarely for reform, and he wood feel encurridged to promise a Democratic majority uv 40,000 in the city of Noo York alone. With the Custom House and Postodis in the control uv Tammany, he cool afford to pay ten thousand repeaters, and give stiddyemployment to every shoulder hitter and brooser in the city. He wood feel justified in charterin a thousand gin mills, and to make shoor uv the State he wood promise to give any majority in the city that mite be needed. Reform wuz his watchword.

Doolittle wanted reform—he yearned for it. He sed that until a President will elected that wood make it possible for him to be Minister to England there will not hope uv the Republic. He will did not be Minister to England there will not hope uv the Republic. He will did not be will be wi

The Southern delegates wur ekally urgent for, reform. Wat they felt war necessary war a complete change. They hed groaned for twelve years under the horvors of nigger votin, and anything that wood give em releef from that wood astisty em. Enything to get back to the good old idee uv the soopertemen uv the sooperior race, and the redoosin uv the sooperior race, and the redoosin uv the sooperior race, and the redoosin uv the south of the sooperior race, and the redoosin uv the sooperior race, and the calculation that the sooperior race, and about the sooperior race, and about the sooperior race, and about the sooperior

The platform can't help sootin the Di morrisy uv the entire country, pertike-lerly when the candidates is taken in ac-count. It is the most flexible platform I ever helpt to construct, and the 'Dime rat wich can't stand onto it ain't worth wear it's soft money—and reform, and pint proudly to Hendricks. In Ngo York and the East we shel swear it's hard mon--and reform, and pint proudly to Til-

Ez I shel hev to stump both seckshuns
I hev two speckes, alreddy prepared, one two wich is hard-money and one soft, and the orators of the party hev fixed their-selves likewise. I wood sejest, now, that sheet in itentions and serenaded their need to be analy, to be applied in each place where a specch is to be made, to see that he gits her right speech started. After the reform specker hez made his speech to the citizens, uv course he shood be allowed to get ex full ex he chooses, but it would be terrible to hev him get up and make the speech in Hartford, Connecticut, that was intended for the latitude of Terre Haut, Injeanny, or to make in Injeanny the hard-money speech wich he shood yoose in Connecticut.

With sich care, and reasonable work, ther can't be any question as to the result. The Dimocrisy heabin out to grass so long that they will fight as men never fought afore, and we shel win. Editors of the Intelligencer:

On Wedenesday morning I left your city intending to find my way to Philadelphia, as soon as convienent, but as yet have only gotton as far as Baitimore. My trip has been at pleasant one so far, except that the heat has been almost unbearable. I was lucky enough in starting to fall in with John F. Connell, of Canonsburg, Fa., and we have thus far enjoyed seeing the sights together.

The train was literally packed with Centennial excursionists, nearly all the Western States being represented. They were generally all intelligent and refined people and they enjoyed the view of the grand scenery through the mountains very much: Many of, them had never seen a mountain before and the contrast between the level parairies and the wild mountain secency through which we passed filled many of them with the widest delight. I find things much changed along the route from what they mere eleven years ago, when I last passed over the road. Old New Creek, now Keyser Gity, could scarcely be recognized by an old soldier who camped for months during the war in that beautifully valley. But if I was surprised at the appearance of Keyser City, I must say that I was astonished on our arrival at Cumberland City. From a town of, perhaps, six or seven thousand inhabitants when last I visited it, it is now a handsome city of near twenty thousand inhabitants. We took supper at the Queen City Hotel, and never was a famished crowd, treated to a better meal, It is surely the queen of hotels. We spent part of yesterday in Washington City seeing the sights. We went all over and also under the Capitol building, trying to understand the mysteries of the manner in which it is ventilated, ing, trying to understand the mysteries of the manner in which it is ventilated, and it is an easy matter for even a novice to see why the hall of the House of Rey resentatives was not well ventilated. We were told confidentially by the guidethat he knew the reason all the while, and of course guides do know, for what they do not know is not worth knowing. He says it, was because a change was made in the men who had charge of the ventilation. For fear any one may think this is a Republican canard, I will state that the guide is a strong Democrat, at least while talking to us. We had the pleasure of meeting Hon. John W. Wallace, of Pennsylvania, and of spending a short time with him on the floor of the house. We also made the acquaintance of Hon. Lorenzo Danford, and found him to be a pleasant gentleman. The vote was taken on the Silver Bill while we were in the house. The venerable Senators seemed to be hard at work, but we did not have time to nay
